

Math Writing Journal entry #2

Name: _____

We have performed the Water Balloon Launch using Algebra. Was our class prediction accurate? Explain with specific detail why or why not?

Think back about the time we spent in class and going outside to do the launching. Assess your overall participation during this experiment. How would you have done this experiment differently? Explain with specific detail.
